

PSHE (Newsletter – 10th October 2025)

- This half term the theme for PSHE is 'All About Me'. In Year 1, the children have been thinking about their families and home. They have created these beautiful pictures that represents what family means to them.
- In Year 3, the children have been discussing different types of families. They have written and published their own books linked to their families.
- Finally, Year 5 have been exploring what 'Respect' and 'Diversity' means. We discussed our similarities and differences. We used our ideas to create some word art in our books.
